

C. J. WINNE.

MARCH 19, 1896.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. HUTCHESON, from the Committee on Claims, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 4512.]

The Committee on Claims, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 4512) for the relief of C. J. Winne, submit the following report:

The Secretary of the Treasury, having certified that there is due on the records of his office to Gilbert Winne the sum of $1,125, and that there is no reason that the same should not be paid except that there are no funds available therefor;

It also appearing to the committee that said Gilbert Winne was killed in 1861 by being run over by a runaway team, which he gallantly stopped and rescued the ladies who were seated in the conveyance drawn by the team;

It also appearing that Mrs. C. J. Winne is his widow;

The committee therefore recommend that the bill be amended by inserting "one thousand one hundred and twenty-five" in the place of "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine," and that as so amended it do pass.
